

Dangerous Chemicals Released into the Environment in 1996*

*The total is 26,066,413 pounds. For air, most common chemicals are methanol, carbonyl sulfide, ammonia, hydrogen fluoride, hydrochloric acid. For water, most common chemicals are nitrate compounds, ammonia, chloroform, manganese, formaldehyde.

SOURCE: Department of Ecology (360-407-6000), Washington State Toxics Release Inventory: Summary Report - 1996, Publication Number 98-402, June 1998.